GOVERNMENT OF KERALA

Transport, Fisheries and Ports (E) Department

NOTIFICATION

G. O. (P) 12|81|TF&PD. Dated, Trivandrum, 11th January 1981.

S. R. O. No. 201/81.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 33 read with sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 (7 of 1981) the Government of Kerala hereby make the following rules, namely:—

RULES

1. Short Title and Commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies (Determination of Strength of Committees and Conduct of Election) Rules, 1980.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) 'Act' means the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 (7 of 1981).

(b) 'Form' means a form appended to these rules.

(c) 'List' means the list of members of Society.

(d) 'Society' means the Fishermen's Welfare Society constituted for a fisheries village.

(e) 'Section' means a section of the Act.

3. Strength of Committees.—The committee of every society shall consist of such number of elected members as may be notified by the Director in accordance with the following scale, namely:—

(a) the committee of a society for a fisheries village with not exceeding 500 households—five members.

(b) the committee of a society for a fisheries village having more than 500 households—five members for the first 500 households and one additional member for every 250 households in excess of 500 subject to a maximum of 8 members.

4. Appointment of Returning Officers.—The Director shall appoint a Returning Officer for the conduct of the election of members to the committee of a Society and it shall be the duty of the Returning Officer so appointed to take all necessary steps to conduct that election and the Fisheries Officer shall render all necessary help to the Returning Officer for the purpose.

5. Procedure for conducting election to the committee.—The election of the members of the committee shall be held in the following manner, namely:—

(1) As soon as may be after the constitution of a Society for the first time and at least 60 days before the date of the expiration of the term of the elected members of the committee of a society or as soon as a casual vacancy arises in the office of the member of a committee as the case may be, the Returning Officer shall with the approval of the Director of Fisheries convene a general body meeting of the society for the purpose of election of members to the committee or to fill up the vacancy, as the case may be.

(2) The Returning Officer shall notify the date and time of election on the notice board of the society and also in such other places as may be fixed by the Fisheries Officer. The notice shall contain the following information, namely:—

(i) the number of vacancy to be filled up by election;

(ii) the date on which, the place at which and hours between which nomination papers shall be filed by the contesting candidates; such dates being not less than seven clear days before the date fixed for election;

(iii) the number of members to be elected, the date on which, the place at which and the hours between which the nomination papers shall be scrutinised; and

(iv) the date on which, the place at which and the hours between which polling will take place;

(3) The nomination of the candidates for election shall be made in Form I which on application shall be supplied by the Returning Officer to any candidate, free of cost.

(4) Every nomination paper shall be signed by two members whose names are included in the list of members. One of the members shall sign the Form as proposer and the other as seconder for the nomination. The nomination paper shall also contain a declaration signed by the candidate proposed for election to the effect that he is willing to stand for election.

(5) Every nomination paper shall be presented in person by the candidate himself or by his proposer or seconder to the Returning Officer, before the date and hour specified in the notice referred to in clause (2). The Returning Officer shall enter on the nomination paper its serial number and certify the date and hour at which the nomination paper is received by him and shall immediately give a written acknowledgement for the receipt of the nomination paper. Any nomination paper which is not delivered or received on or before the date and time fixed for its receipt shall be rejected.

(6) No member shall be nominated as a candidate for election to fill a seat on the committee if he is not qualified to be elected as a member of the committee under sub-section (1) of section 10 or any other provision of the Act or the rules framed thereunder.

(7) The Returning Officer shall take up the scrutiny of the nomination papers on the date fixed therefor. Every candidate or his proposer or his seconder may be present at the time of the scrutiny of nomination paper.

(8) The Returning Officer shall examine the nomination papers and shall decide objections which may be made by any person in respect of any nomination and my either on such objection or on his own motion and after making such summary inquiry, if any, as he thinks necessary, reject any nomination:

Provided that the nomination of a candidate shall not be rejected merely on the ground of an incorrect description of his name or of the name of his proposer or seconder or of any other particulars relating to the candidate or his proposer or seconder as entered in the list of members if the identity of the candidate or proposer or seconder as the case may be is established beyond reasonable doubt.

(9) The Returning Officer shall give all reasonable facilities to the contesting candidates or their proposers or seconders. as the case may be, to examine all the nomination papers and satisfy themselves that the inclusion of the name of the contesting candidate is valid.

(10) The Returning Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper his decision accepting or rejecting the same, as the case may be, and if the nomination paper is rejected, he shall record in writing a brief statement of his reasons for such rejection.

(11) The Returning Officer shall not allow any adjournment of the proceedings except when such proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by riot or affray or by any cause beyond his control.

(12) The list of valid nominations as decided by the Returning Officer shall be published on the notice board of the society containing the names in alphabetical order and address of the candidates as given in the nomination papers. on the same day on which the scrutiny of the nomination papers is completed.

(13) Any candidate may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing signed by him and delivered in person or through the proposer or seconder to the Returning Officer at any time after the presentation of his nomination paper but before 5 p. m. on the day following the day on which the valid nominations are published under clause (12). A notice of withdrawal of candidature once given shall be final.

(14) If the number of candidates whose nomination papers have been declared valid does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected, the Returning Officer shall on the day fixed for the election, announce the name of all such candidates whose nominations are valid and declare them to have been duly elected to the committee. If the number of candidates whose nominations are valid exceeds the number to be elected, the Returning Officer shall arrange for conducting a poll on the date fixed for the purpose. The Returning Officer may appoint one or more polling officers as may be necessary for conducting the poll.

(15) The Committee shall provide the Returning Officer with ballot boxes, ballot papers, copy of the list of members and such other articles as may be necessary for the conduct of the election. The ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be taken out therefrom without the box being unlocked.

(16) A candidate contesting the election may, by a letter to the Returning Officer, appoint an agent to represent him at every booth, where polling is held to identify the voters and to watch the recording of votes. Such letter shall contain the consent in writing of the agent concerned.

(17) Canvassing of votes by any person at the place where elections are to be conducted shall be prohibited.

(18) Immediately before the commencement of the poll the polling officer shall show the empty ballot box to such persons as may be present at the time and shall then lock it up and affix his seal in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal. The candidate or his agent may also affix his own seal, if he so desires.

(19) Every member who desires to exercise his right of vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper containing the names of contesting candidates arranged in the alphabetical order, either, printed, typewritten or cyclostyled, according to convenience, on the ballot paper. The ballot paper shall be serially numbered and shall also bear the seal of the society and also the initials of the Returning Officer, and further contain a column for the voter to inscribe a mark 'X' against the name of person to whom he wants to vote.

(20) Each polling station and where there is more than one polling booth at a station, each such booth shall contain a separate compartment in which the members can record their votes in secrecy.

(21) No ballot paper shall be issued to a member unless the polling officer is satisfied that the member concerned is the same person as noted in the list furnished to him. When a ballot paper is issued, the serial number of the ballot paper issued shall be noted against the name of the member in the list. On receipt of such ballot paper, the member shall proceed to the polling compartment set apart for the purpose and indicate the person in whose favour he exercise his vote by inscribing a mark 'X' against the name of the candidate, put the ballot paper in the ballot box kept for the purpose with utmost secrecy. If owing to blindness or other physical infirmity or illiteracy, a member is unable to inscribe the mark on the ballot paper, the Polling Officer or the Returning Officer shall ascertain from him the candidate in whose favour he desires to vote, inscribe the mark 'X' on his behalf and put the ballot paper in the ballot box.

(22) If at any stage of the polling, the proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or affray or if at such elections it is not possible to take the poll for any sufficient cause, the Returning Officer shall have power to stop the polling, recording his reasons for such an action in the minutes book of the society.

(23) No voter shall be admitted after the hours fixed for the poll, but a voter who enters the premises where ballot papers are being issued before the closing of the polling hour, shall be issued the ballot paper and allowed to vote.

(24) The counting of votes shall take place immediately after the close of the poll, if possible. If this is not possible, the ballot box shall be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer. and the contesting candidate or their agents if they so desire, and be kept by the Returning Officer under his safe custdy. The Returning Officer shall then announce and also intimate in writing to the candidates or their agents the time and place at which the counting shall commence. Votes shall be counted by or under the supervision of the Returning Officer. Each candidate and his authorised agent shall have a right to be present at the time of counting. But the absence of any candidate or his agent at the time of counting shall not vitiate counting or announcement of results by the Returning Officer. The number of votes secured by each candidate and the result of the elections shall be announced by the Returning Officer as soon as the counting is over.

(25) The result of the elections shall also be recorded in the minutes book of the society and attested by the Returning Officer and shall also be notified immediately on the notice board of the society.

(26) A ballot paper shall be rejected by the Returning Officer if—

(i) it bears any mark by which the member who voted can be identified; or

(ii) it does not bear the seal of the society and the initials of the Returning Officer; or

(iii) the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been cast; or

(iv) it bears mark for more than one candidate.

By order of the Governor,

D. BABU PAUL,
Special Secretary to Government.

NOTIFICATION

G. O. (P) 11/81/TF & PD. Dated, Trivandrum, 11th January, 1981.

S. R. O. No. 200/81.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 33 read with sub-section (2) of section 5 of the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 (7 of 1981) the Government of Kerala hereby make the following rules, namely:—

RULES

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies (Preparation and Publication of List of Fishermen) Rules, 1980.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) 'Form' means a form appended to these rules.

(ii) 'List' means the list of fishermen prepared under rule 3, who are deemed to be member of the Society under sub-section (2) of section 5 of the Act.

(iii) 'Act' means the Kerala Fishermen Welfare Societies Act, 1980 (7 of 1981).

(iv) 'Village' means the fisheries village defined in clause (g) of section 2 of the Act.

3. Preparation and publication of list.—(1) The Fisheries Officer shall prepare a draft of the list of fishermen for the village in Form 1.

(2) A copy of the draft list prepared under sub-rule (1) shall be kept available for inspection in the Office of the Society concerned and notice in Form 2 shall be exhibited in the notice board in the Office of the Society concerned and in such other places as may be considered necessary by the Fisheries Officer.

(3) A claim by any person for the inclusion of his name in the list and on objection to the inclusion of any name or regarding the particulars of an entry therein shall be lodged before the Fisheries Officer within a period of 15 days from the date of publication of the draft list and notice under sub-rule (2).

(4) A claim by any person for inclusion of his name in the list shall be in Form 3 and shall be signed by him and countersigned by another person whose name is already included in that list.

(5) Every objection to the inclusion of any name in the list shall be in Form 4 and be preferred only by a person whose name is already included in that list, and countersigned by another person whose name is already included in the list.

(6) Every objection to any of the particulars in an entry in the list shall be in Form 5 and shall be preferred only by a person to whom that entry relates.

(7) The Fisheries Officer shall maintain in duplicate, a list of claims in Form 6, a list of objections to the inclusion of names in Form 7 and a list of objections to any of the particulars in an entry in Form 8, and exhibit one copy each of such lists on the notice board in his office.

(8) Any claim or objection which is not lodged within the period or in the prescribed form and manner shall be rejected by the Fisheries Officer.

(9) If the Fisheries Officer is satisfied as to the validity of any claim or objection, he may allow it without further inquiry after the expiry of one week from the date on which the list is published by him under sub-rule (7):

Provided that the Fisheries Officer shall not allow the claim or objection without further inquiry if before any such claim or objection is allowed a demand for inquiry has been made in writing to him by any person.

(10) Where a claim or objection is not disposed of under sub-rule (8) or sub-rule (9) the Fisheries Officer shall give notice of the hearing;

(i) in the case of a claim, to the claimant in Form 9;

(ii) in the case of an objection to the inclusion of a name, to the objector in Form 10 and where the name objected is not that of the objector, to the person whose name is objected to, in Form 11; and

(iii) in the case of an objection to any of the particulars in an entry, to the objector in Form 12.

(11) A notice under sub-rule (10) may be given either to the person direct or by affixing it in a conspicuous place in that person's residence.

(12) The Fisheries Officer shall hold a summary enquiry into every claim or objection in respect of which notice has been given under sub-rule (11) and shall record his decision thereon.

(13) At the hearing, the claimant or as the case may be, the objector and the person objected to and any other person who in the opinion of the Fisheries Officer is likely to be of assistance to him shall be entitled to appear and be heard.

(14) If it appears to the Fisheries Officer that owing to inadvertence or error, during preparation of the list the names of any of the fishermen have been left out of the list and that remedial action should be taken, the Fisheries Officer shall,—

(a) prepare a list of the names and other details of such fishermen;

(b) exhibit on the notice board of his office a copy of the list together with a notice as to the time and place at which the inclusion of these names in the list will be considered and also publish that list and notice in such other manner as he may think necessary; and

(c) after considering any verbal or written objections that may be preferred, decide whether all or any of the names should be included in the list.

(15) The Fisheries Officer may correct any clerical errors or other apparent inaccuracies discovered in the list of fishermen.

(16) The Fisheries Officer shall,—

(a) prepare a list of amendments or erratum as the case may be, to the list to carry out his decision or to correct any clerical or other inaccuracies discovered in the list, as the case may be;

(b) publish the list together with the list of amendments and|or erratum by making the same available for inspection and publishing notice thereof in Form 13 in the notice board at his office.

(17) On such publication, the list, together with the list of amendment and|or errata shall be the list in force.

By order of the Governor,

D. Babu Paul,
Special Secretary to Government.

Explanatory Note
